Prefatory Note.

This supplementary list of Additions and Corrections includes all such material previously issued in the supplement to the main list, in July, 1919, as well as that added or noted since that date. This combination of the two supplements results in but two alphabets of entries and references, and one alphabet of corrections; the former supplement may, therefore, be entirely disregarded by users of the Check-list.

The present list includes many references to entries in the main list not found in the supplement, additional to the references printed in the main list, besides those referring to entries in the supplement itself. It does not include, however, references already made in the main list, when the names or titles concerned are repeated here in newly acquired editions or for other reasons.

This second supplement is sent to those who have checked the instalments of the main list sent them heretofore, and to a few other collectors and libraries who have manifested an interest in the list. Those to whom it is sent are requested to check it in the same manner as the instalments of the main Check-list, and to return a checked copy. Notes of any length made in the original list of Additions and Corrections need not be repeated, unless the author of such notes finds their repetition desirable and convenient.

July, 1920.
